We have received your enquiry in which you ask for news of your Cousin,

Sgt. A. E. Lukeman 222105 Royal Air Force

We are so sorry to tell you that no information has been received about him up to the present, but all possible enquiries are being made. Any news which may be forthcoming from the International Red Cross Committee at Geneva or from any other source, will be passed to you immediately.

P.S. If you do not hear from us for some considerable time it will mean that no news has been forthcoming and we feel sure you will understand that long delay is now inevitable.
